Salaried GP (6-8 Sessions)

South Street Surgery, Bishop's Stortford, Hertfordshire

An exciting opportunity to join a thriving, forward-thinking training practice in one of Hertfordshire's most desirable locations.

South Street Surgery is seeking an enthusiastic and motivated Salaried GP (6-8 sessions per week) to join our friendly and supportive clinical team. With a patient population of approximately 22,000 patients, we are a well-established, high-performing practice committed to delivering excellent patient care while supporting professional development and work-life balance.

Why Join Us?

Established GP Training Practice

We are proud to be an accredited training practice with a strong reputation for teaching and mentoring the next generation of GPs. Whether you enjoy teaching or wish to develop educational interests, you will find a supportive environment to do so.

Collaborative and Supportive Team

You will work alongside experienced GP partners, salaried GPs, nurses, pharmacists, physician associates, first-contact practitioners and an excellent administrative team. We believe in teamwork, open communication and shared learning.

Excellent Location

Situated in the heart of Bishop's Stortford, we benefit from outstanding transport connections to London and Cambridge, which is known for its excellent primary and secondary schools.

Informal Enquiries and Applications

We welcome informal discussions and would be delighted to show prospective candidates around the practice. Please contact sss.hr@nhs.net for further details.
